

SoundLab Channel*

Initiative and show case by ConcertHall at MediaArtCentre and [R][R][F]2006-→XP

SoudndLab Channel*

is a virtual media space, a media project and a physical media initiative in the framework of ConcertHall at MediaArtCentre and [R][R][F]2006-→XP - global networking project by Agricola de Cologne, New Media curator and media artist from Cologne/Germany.

SoudndLab Channel*

is including and presenting

- a) curatorial contributions of soundart and radioart works
- b) works of individual artists curated by Melody Parker-Carter, chief curator of SoundLab Channel
- c) new programs of soundart and radioart extracted from existing soundart programs from Internet radio stations around the globe, for instance, Kunstradio/Vienna-→ soundart from Australia and Serbia.

SoudndLab Channel*

is focussing on thematic aspects, i.e. “memory and identity” and related themes and is developed for being presented in physical space in media exhibitions and festivals, as well as in virtual space as streaming applications in the online environments of ConcertHall at MediaArtCentre and [R][R][F]2006-→XP.

SoudndLab Channel*

contains currently contributions from

USA curated by John Kannenberg
Canada by Tobias Van Veen
Norway curated by Eva Sjuve
Spain curated by Juan Antonio Lleó
New Zealand curated by Zoe Drayton
Germany curated by Melody Parker-Carter Bulgaria curated by Ivan Bachev
Germany curated by Peter Wolf Australia curated by Michael Yuen

and more than 150 streaming works by more than 100 artists.

can be installed/presented as a stand-alone project environment in media exhibitions or festivals or in the framework of [R][R][F]2006-→XP and its physical installations.

All works are available in virtual space online as streaming audio and for preview at ConcertHall at MediaArt Centre – <http://concerthall.le-musee-divisioniste.org> and/or [R][R][F]2006-→XP – <http://rrf2006.newmediafest.org> and for presentations in physical space from DVD.
